Southeast News.

In "Coontown," in the suburbs of Caruthersville, John Vaughan, a negro, shot and killed another negro named "Bulger" Houston and made his escape.

Jackson Items.

A trestle on the Jackson branch road, south of Dutchtown, was destroyed by fire Monday, March 13. and the train could not get through to Allenville, but passengers and mail were transferred at the site.

At Caruthersville, March 13, the People's gin was destroyed by fire. Fortunately, the cotton season is about over, reducing the loss to $8,000 or $10,000, partly insured. The gin will be rebuilt by next Plat River News.

Because they entered the home of Mrs. Rosie Bledsoe in Flat River on Sunday night and proceeded to break up the furaiture, forcing Mrs. Bledsoe to flee with her children to the neighbors for protection, Ann Marier and her daughter, Elsie Marler, were arraigned before Judge Ramsey Wednesday on a charge of peace disturbance They were fined $20. each and not having any such vast sum of money were taken to Farminsten and put in the coop.

Londwood Danner.

March 13, about 130 mm, the large brick building owned and orcupied by the Herculaneum Mercantile company was totally destroyed. by first It is thought that robbers started the fire, as they have been in the habit of breaking in and cook ing food taken from the store. One morning on opening the store the manager found a lighte I lamp. The loss on building is $8,000, insurance $4,000, on merchandisc $15. 000 insurance $8,000

Dunklin Demorrat.

H. C. Schult, of Caruthersville. has been appointed a regent of the state normal school, at Cape Girardeau for a term of six years. He will be a most desirable member of the board for he is one of those men who, when he has anything to do goes on and does it. He never forgets his appointments, never allows little things to stop him and is ever mindful of the time and engagements of others. Often we have thought of Hina Schult, when we have heard that old aphorism When you want anything done, call on a busy man."

Predericktown Tribune.

The Bank of Fredericktown and the Fredericktown State bank have consolidated with a capital stock of $37,000 the joint stock of the two banks. The new bank will take the office of the State Bank. J.
